

ASKING FOR HELP

CHALLENGE: How many questions can you answer!

Do you find it easy or hard to ask for help?

What would life be like if no-one asked for help?

Is there someone you know who might appreciate some help?

What is a terrible way to ask for help?

What would life be like if people didn't help each other?

Is there someone who you think is good at asking for help?

What ideas do you have to make it easier to ask for help?

What is something you like to do but need help with?